

Rome Campus

Experience the Eternal City at Australian Catholic University's (ACU) Rome Campus. Embedded in the fabric of Rome, the campus offers a unique opportunity to engage with the university's mission and vision through the lens of the city of Rome.

ACU's Rome Campus is strategically located opposite the walls of the old city of Rome's popular residential neighbourhood of Monteverde and is surrounded by two historic Roman parks (Villa Pamphilj and Villa Sciarra).

A short distance from Vatican City and the historic centre of Rome, the campus is easily accessible by car, bus, or public transport. Trastevere railway station is close by providing convenient links to Fiumicino Airport. Those travelling by coach will find it easily accessible for drop-off and pick up.

Once on campus you are within walking distance of important historical sites, shops, cafés, parks and traditional Roman restaurants.

SPACES FOR EVERY EVENT

ACU Rome Campus offers a variety of spacious and versatile conference and breakout rooms, making it the ideal campus for lectures, seminars, meetings, workshops small receptions and networking functions.

Host your meeting in one of two classrooms/meeting rooms or make use of our large well-equipped conference room that can accommodate up to 200 guests and multiple configurations. Spaces are well-equipped with the latest IT equipment and the auditorium also offers a stage, audio visual equipment, and simultaneous translation booths. adipsing elit.
